Sassafras River Yacht Club Membership Waiver

As a member of the Sassafras River Yacht Club (hereinafter referred to as SRYC), I understand that SRYC is a not-for-profit organization created for the purpose of promoting social interaction among its boating membership. The officers and volunteers of SRYC will sponsor social and boating activities on behalf of its members. I understand that there exists an inherent risk of danger to person and property when operating a boat and that the decision to participate in any sponsored boating or social activity is at my own discretion and risk. I understand that, as the captain and/or owner of my vessel that I am solely responsible for the safe operation of my vessel and the safety and conduct of my crew and guests at all times. I hereby agree to hold and save harmless the officers and volunteers of SRYC for any bodily injury, personal injury or property damage sustained or caused by me, my crew or my guests at any sponsored boating or social activity. I hereby waive any rights of recovery or subrogation that might otherwise be available to me against the officers and volunteers of SRYC as a result of damage to my property including but not limited to my vessel that might occur during a sponsored activity.
